

WILLIAM STEVENS - 10.

A. No.

Q. Then aside from what your sister told you it might have been half past one or might have been two o'clock that you went out?

A. I remember she said about half past one.

Q. When you got home what did you do?

A. Simply went to bed.

Q. And your sister too?

A. As far as I know she went to bed too.

Q. Did you see her again before morning?

A. No. I did not.

Q. When you first saw her in the morning, say anything about the absence of Mr. Hall?

A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. When did you first learn that he had been gone all night?

A. When my sister told me he hadn't shown up when she woke me.

Q. When did your sister learn that he did not come home?

A. Next morning.

Q. Who told you that?

A. My sister.

Q. What did she say about that?

A. I don't remember anything special she said. It might have been just some common place remark.

Q. She did not suggest to you that she was afraid about his safety, or things of that sort?

A. I have no recollection of it. I am awfully sorry I cannot give any better explanation.

Q. When did you send this black suit to the cleaners?

A. Saturday evening. I telephoned for this suit knowing I would not be able to go down, and asked Mr. Lyons to send me a black suit.
